"Opinion pieces denouncing Heard and portraying her as the abuser in her former relationship with Johnny Depp are springing up again, with the takeaway that finally 'the truth' has been uncovered. But has it?" —
@KatyPreen

Already, we're preparing the ducking stool for Amber Heard
It's difficult to extract the truth, but there's a familiar pattern.

Here's a perfect example of what NOT to do if you claim you're advocating for victims of intimate partner violence/domestic abuse. This rhetoric is harmful and filled with hypocrisy. No victim is making it harder for survivors, it's you, who makes it harder. #VAW

If you're a creator and you needed to hear this today:

You have no idea how many people lurk on your work. No idea how many times people go back to revisit your work. How big they smile when they simply think about your work. How fast their heart beats, how excited they get when they see that you posted something.

People are shy with their feedback. Sometimes it's because they're simply shy. Other times it's because they assume you already know how great and talented you are. Could be both.

My point is, even if you barely have any likes or reblogs, don't get discouraged. You have a lot of silent fans, but they are still your fans. Keep on creating. Because there is always someone out there who will love what you have made.

Please don't share the Zac Stacy video without a warning. Also, please note that, w/out this video, the woman being attacked would likely be labeled as a gold digger trying to extort money from an NFL player, had she come forward. #BelieveWomen

I don't expect anything from men and I don't get surprised when they aren't on my side, or when they attack me, because that is far more consistent with my experience than the alternative.

I get that dudes who are afraid of losing their privileges are scared of you... but people who should be on your side that attack you... how do you cope with that? Does it just fall off the think skin you had to grow out of experience? Admirable.

well, I've never raped a man. never beaten one bloody. never trapped one in a relationship by making him fear for his life or the safety of his children. I've never killed a man for rejecting my sexual advances or burned down a house with a man in it because he broke up with me. I've never mutilated a man's penis to prevent him from ever experiencing sexual pleasure. I've never thrown acid on a man as punishment for rejecting me or dishonoring his family. I've never broken a small boy's bones to mold his body into a more aesthetically pleasing shape, essentially crippling him in the process. I've never bought or sold a man's body. I've never advocated that men should be legally obliged to impregnate women against their will. I've never denied a man a career opportunity because of his penis.

so no, I guess I don't hate men. certainly not as

This paragraph in the @BuzzFeedNews investigation into why fencer Alen Hadzic, who is under investigation for sexual assault, is allowed to compete in the #Olympics is absolutely bonkers. I read it a couple of hours ago and can't stop thinking about it:
buzzfeednews.com/article/briann...

wo months later, Hadzic is one of 24 Olympic fencers in Tokyo, an alternate on the men's épée team, attaining a rarefied spot at the pinnacle of his sport, to the dismay of his teammates. Though last month SafeSport had suspended Hadzic from the international competition, the 29-year-old from Montclair, New Jersey, fought to get the prohibition lifted through an arbitration process that ultimately permitted him to participate in the Summer Games. Acknowledging the severity of the allegations facing Hadzic, USA Fencing, the athletic federation in charge of selecting the country's Olympic competitors, created a "safety plan" to keep him away from women and out of the Olympic Village: He flew in on a separate plane from his teammates, is staying at a hotel 30 minutes away from the other athletes, and won't be allowed to practice alongside women teammates. After he appealed those conditions, the entire roster of Team USA fencers signed a letter demanding the restriction stay in place.

If EVERYONE needs therapy, then the problems EVERYONE is dealing with are systemic, cultural... too big to be confronted alone between two people. It's actually a grave injustice to make individuals responsible for this.

On the last day of #PrideMonth2021 I'm appreciating Amber Heard's iconic 'coming out' interview from 2010 where she highlights the stigma in Hollywood and the lack of #LGBTQ role models. Then she became recognised as one.

No one else was doing it like her.

AMBER HEARD IS INNOCENT

Let's fact-check the claims against her.

1. "She cut off Johnny Depp's finger."

The photo of Depp's finger injury was originally part of Amber's evidence in 2016. Depp cut off his own finger while high on prescription painkillers. He later tried to write stories about Amber as a minor (pictured left). When the story first broke in 2015, Depp's bodyguard Jerry Judge tracked down the reporter who leaked it and tried to bribe him to reveal his sources.

2. "She abused her past partner."

In 2009, Amber was arrested at an airport after an argument with her then-girlfriend Tasya Van Ree. There were no injuries. The prosecutors dropped the charges immediately after Tasya herself has denied that Amber was abusive towards her, and publicly stated "Amber was wrongfully accused for an incident that was misinterpreted and over-sensationalized by two individuals in a power position. It's disheartening that Amber's integrity and story are being questioned again."

3. "Depp has 87 surveillance videos against her."

These videos do not show her abusing him. So what is the actual content and purpose of these 87 videos? According to Depp's lawyer, the videos show Heard applying makeup and paint to injuries on her face in the days after he assaulted her (a fact which can be explained by her use of makeup, especially as Amber was trying to achieve a private resolution at the time). Depp has not claimed to have video footage of any abuse towards him.

4. "She admitted to abusing him."

Depp's lawsuit contains this line: "Ms. Heard also committed multiple acts of domestic violence against Mr. Depp, some of which she has confessed to under oath." The 30-page document goes into minute detail, yet is deliberately vague about the content of Amber's confession, never once mentions what she actually confessed to, and never quotes from Amber's deposition. In 2016, Amber already had to defend herself against Depp. If a victim can't back against their attacker, does that not make them abuse? Does it not undermine her defense of self-defense into an admission of abuse - otherwise, he would have quoted her actual confession.

5. "She lied about being abused."

Amber did not confess to making up allegations. In fact, Depp's ex-managers have said they were informed by "various house staff and security" that Depp "had been extremely volatile and had sometimes gotten physical with Heard." There are also text messages between Amber and Stephen Deoulet, Depp's longtime assistant, in which he apologizes for multiple incidents of Depp's abuse towards her. The backups of these texts have been authenticated by a forensic consultant. Last but not least, a joint statement from 2017 states that "neither party made false accusations for the record."

The statement of the man she was meant to love above all... Here's the real deal, man. Her obsession with herself... ?? Is for more important... she is SO FUCKIN AMAZING. She's a real person for once. I am so sorry for what he did to her. I was never mean to her. Although she has HAMMERED me with a ton of lies, I have been a ... Cowan has done me the most cr@t of favors... I'm so very sorry to agree Ms Heard is a real person. I do accept that this untrue account was given strictly to agree Ms Heard is a real person.

Mr Depp admitted in his evidence ripping a telephone off the wall. (c) I do not accept that Ms Heard was responsible for the injury to Mr Depp's finger. The first account appears to have been in Mr Depp's text to Dr Kupper. It is notable in that text that he says he cut his finger, nor that she cut it. Mr Kupper said that he had been to the hospital and had been treated for a cut to his finger, but that is not what Mr Depp said in his text to Dr Kupper. Nor did Mr Depp say that Ms Heard had been responsible for the cut to his finger either of his two texts to Dr Kupper on 8th March 2015. What exactly caused the injury is uncertain. Mr Kupper spoke of there being a great deal of broken glass around the scene of the incident. Mr Kupper also stated that there was much discussion on the way to the hospital as to what [falter] explanation could be given. Mr Kupper also stated that he had been asked to give a statement that was catastrophic for Mr Depp. It seems that the hospital was told that Mr Depp had been to the hospital and had been treated for a cut to his finger. (e) all the evidence together, I accept that she was the victim of the repeated assaults by Mr Depp in Australia. It is a sign of the repeated assaults that she says he cuts his finger, nor that she cut it. Mr Depp admitted scrawling graffiti in blood from his injured finger was insufficient, dipping his badly injured finger to write messages and other things. I accept her evidence that she was the victim of the repeated assaults he committed against her. They must have been catastrophic for Mr Depp. It seems that the hospital was told that Mr Depp had been to the hospital and had been treated for a cut to his finger. (f) at Mr Depp put her in fear of her life.

5. They're doing it for fame/money/clout

It is hard to imagine that someone responding to abuse allegations like this is really acting in good faith. Name one woman who got famous or rich from making accusations? Name someone in the Weinstein case who wasn't famous before but now is? R Kelly? Bill Cosby? There are, to our knowledge, zero examples of previously anonymous women who are now rich, famous and swimming in clout for naming their abuser. The reality is often just more trauma for the accuser. They lose work, they get hounded on Twitter, they get doxxed, and they have to face accusations that they only opened up about their trauma for non-existent "clout".

b. The absence of any reference to the hearing referred to by Mr. Hogan as the Defendant's meeting in the days after the incident, except a very short comment acknowledged [REDACTED] (AT&T 10/17/2007 AMT 200701070002), without either quoting "Searched for my finger pretty soon," which may suggest that Ms Hogan was responsible [REDACTED] (AT&T 10/17/2007 AMT 200701070003).

c. The absence of any reference to the hearing referred to by Ms Hogan as a test to her friend Mr. Justice (by whom the Plaintiff accepted did he mean Mr. Justice?) held at [REDACTED] (AT&T 10/17/2007 AMT 200701070004), even though the test referred to having "just had" and "the tip of his finger ripped off".

e. The name of the doctor who informed the Plaintiff of the emergency room is R. Morris, Dr. Morris. "I am assuming an injury to the right middle finger taught him accordingly to cut a hole in the body, or the debris or damage traps that commands to do that" (AT&T 01/07/2007 and also similarly to the middle of the tip of the ring finger). Drs. Morris consisted of a committed of the tip of his middle finger to a jagged fracture

14 LORD JUSTICE UNWIN: We have had our findings about that

- med exam proves his injury wasn't consistent with- as he claims- a glass bottle, and there were zero glass shards found
- a recording, one HE made, confirms he did a drug binge and cut his finger off

But texts aired in court today for the first time reveal he texted his doctor, David Kipper, on 7 March and 19 March 2015.

He said: 'I cut the tip of my middle finger off. What should I do? Except of course go to hospital.'

'I am so embarrassed for jumping into anything with her. F**K the world. JD.'

Then 12 days later he sent text message to Dr Kipper: 'Thank you for everything. I have chopped off my left middle finger as a reminder that I should never cut my finger off again.'

According to court documents, "the incident between Depp and Brooks took place on April 13, 2017, and allegedly arose after Brooks advised Depp that they would have only one more shot, in order to abide by the city permit restricting filming to 11 p.m. inside the Barclay Hotel in downtown Los Angeles. Depp saw their $5m divorce settlement as charges being dropped. And talked of Amber being in breach of their agreement "if she releases anything"

He was so scared of what she could release that he had her agree to a strict NDA as part of the settlement.

The entire world may now say, forever, that Mr. Depp is a "wife beater" and has committed at least 12 acts of domestic violence against Amber Heard, causing her to be in fear for her life.

#JohnnyDeppisawifebeater

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

In June 2018, 8 months prior to filing this case, Plaintiff Depp sued for libel in the UK, predicated on the same set of facts at issue in this case. Depp sued The Sun Newspaper for calling him a "wife beater" and sought a determination that he did not commit domestic violence against his wife, Amber Heard. After extensive discovery and a three-week trial, where the burden of proof was on the Defendants to prove the allegations were true, the London Court, in a 129-page, 585 paragraph Opinion, Att. A to JN,<sup>1</sup> found that Mr. Depp had engaged in at least 12 acts of domestic violence against Amber Heard, some of which caused her to fear for her life. Mr. Depp requested permission to appeal (a motion to reconsider), which was denied. Att. B to JN. Mr. Depp then appealed to the Courts of Appeal. Counsel argued before a panel of two Appellate Judges, claiming both new evidence and error. By Orders dated March 25 and 31, 2021, as amended April 6, 2021, the Appellate Court denied Depp's final appeals. Att. C and D to JN. With the finality of the Judgment, rendered after Mr. Depp presented his best evidence and arguments on the exact same factual issues asserted here, Mr. Depp should be precluded from seeking yet another bite of the apple, where he has fully adjudicated his dispute, and lost. Because of the UK Judgment, the entire world may now say, forever, that Mr. Depp is a "wife beater" and has committed at least 12 acts of domestic violence against Amber Heard, causing her to be in fear for her life. In short, the UK Judgment, now final, permits this Court to end this litigation.

Q. And certainly you joined in.
A. Yes.
Q. Were references to the fact that she was trying to spoil your fun, as you saw it, by being able to take drugs and drink as much as you chose to. Do you agree with that or disagree?
A. I had spoken to Mr. Bettany quite a lot, as we were working together, and he was a very close friend, so he knew of our arguments and fighting, and he knew details. I was resentful of the fact that Ms. Heard was very aggressive and quite insulting about my use of alcohol, or if cocaine came into the picture, she did not like Mr. Bettany, and I am afraid she did not really like me all that much either, and she was constantly harping on things that did not even exist.
Q. She did not like you when you were high on drugs and drunk alcohol, did she?
A. She did not like that she -- she did not like me using alcohol or drugs, because she had some delusional idea that they turned me into, as you have spoken about, this said monster.
Q. All right. I think that is very helpful. Thank you for that.

Johnny Depp couldn't hide his anger and misogynistic language in this text to his agent. Even threatening violence against Elon Musk and wishing death on Amber.

He wanted to ensure that she faced "global humiliation" and vowed to "stop at nothing".

#JohnnyDeppIsAWifeBeater

580. Something of Mr Depp's feelings towards Ms Heard can be seen in a text that he sent to Christian Carino on 15th August 2016 in which he said (see file 6/119/F697.194),

'She's begging for total global humiliation. She's gonna get it. I'm gonna need your texts about San Francisco brother ... I'm even sorry to ask ... But she sucked Mollusk's [I assume a reference to Elon Musk] crooked dick and he gave her some shitty lawyers ... I have no mercy, no fear and not an ounce of emotion or what I once thought was love for this gold digging, low level, dime a dozen, mushy, pointless dangling overused flappy fish market ... I'm so fucking happy she wants to fight this out!!! She will hit the wall hard!!!! And I cannot wait to have this waste of a cum guzzler out of my life!!!! I met fucking sublime little Russian here ... Which makes me realize the time I blew on that 50 cent stripper ... I wouldn't touch her with a goddamn glove. I can only hope that karma kicks in and takes the gift of breath from her ... Sorry man ... But NOW I will stop at nothing!!!! Let's see if Mollusk has a pair ... Come see me face to face ... I'll show him things he's never seen before ... Like the other side of his dick when I slice it off.'

denies the abuse ever took place, blames the victim for attempting to hold the abuser accountable, and claims that they, the abuser, are actually the victim in the situation, thus reversing the reality of the victim and offender.<sup>[1][3]</sup> This usually involves not just "playing the victim" but also victim blaming.<sup>[2]</sup>

▼ Origins

^ Examples

Alleged examples of DARVO in public events include:

- The behaviour of R. Kelly during an interview related to criminal proceedings against him for sexual abuse of minors.<sup>[5]</sup>
- The behaviour of former American President Donald Trump in defending himself against sexual harassment allegations, as well as in defending himself against allegations of his other wrongdoings.<sup>[6]</sup> everyone continuing to spew vitriol & abuse at this woman after she proved her claims in court should be ashamed. this is larger than amber individually. ur all helping maintain a system of victim-blaming & shaming that keeps other much more vulnerable victims silent and afraid.

Amber Heard @realamberheard · Mar 26, 2021

Thank you.

"We are pleased - but by no means surprised - by the Court's denial of Mr. Depp's application for appeal. The evidence presented in the UK case was overwhelming and undeniable. To reiterate, the original verdict was that Mr Depp beat Amber on no fewer than 12 occasions and was left in fear of her life. Mr Depp's confused recollections, caused by years of substance abuse, meant he was not a credible witness to his own actions. The verdict stands and British journalists can write - without fear of legal threats - that Mr Depp is, categorically, a wife beater."
