What about the two hour tape of Amber carrying out narcissistic abuse?

It's full of key signs: physical violence, gaslighting, belittlement, blame shifting, projection, pity plays, provocation, lack of accountability, deflection, grandiosity etc. etc.

An interesting finding from Guanteng, SA, is that the Omicron wave is trending towards infecting 15-25% of the population eventually, similar to past covid waves. This is despite light restrictions.

Credit to @pieterstreicher - would highly recommend reading his research.

Samji @SamjiSmokes · Dec 15, 2021

This is gaslighting, followed by deflection.

The tape is not edited, and follows full conversations without breaks. It was presented in court and was not disputed by either side:
courttv.com/news/amber-hea...

This is narcissistic abuse by Amber Heard, whether you admit it or not.

Samji @SamjiSmokes · Dec 15, 2021

Replying to @laribumi and @realamberheard

But Amber was the abuser in the relationship. Please listen to the full two hours of audio. If you have been through abuse, you will recognise her abusive behaviours such as violence, blame shifting, controlling behaviour, provocation, gaslighting etc.

Samji @SamjiSmokes · Dec 9, 2021

A narcissist may offer false contrition to get somebody back under control, but they never feel genuinely responsible or sorry for what they have done.

This is demonstrated by them repeating the action, or justifying it (e.g. "you poke an animal enough..." to justify violence).

Samji @SamjiSmokes · Dec 9, 2021

Being accountable for her actions would threaten her control, which is something that a narcissist cannot allow to happen.

Because she is an unaware narcissist, it's like a mental block is in place stopping this from happening, no matter what she has done.

A narcissist is fundamentally incapable of accepting accountability and seeing that what they have done is wrong. As strange as it sounds, Amber will believe that she was 100% in the right and justified in her actions.

Vincent LaGuardia Gambini @VincentLaGuard3 · Dec 9, 2021

She cheated on him.
She falsely accused him of DV so she could keep his penthouses.
She staged a "crime scene" to frame him.
She pooped in his fucking bed.

But she CANNOT FATHOM why he would stop talking to her.

That, my friends, is some next-level delusion.

"Christian – do you think he and I will ever speak again?" one message from the Aquaman star read, dated 2 October 2016.

"Does he hate me?" she followed up.

"I don't see why or how we could just stop talking to each other...Or how are why we could both want to talk to each other, either".

Neglect and lack of empathy. After just one sentence not being about Amber, we're back to "The Amber Show". This is one final turd left in the bed for Bianca. It almost sounds like Amber wants to start a new life without Bianca.

private life is none of anyone's business. I also get that the nature of my job compels me to take control of this. My daughter was born on April 8, 2021. Her name is Oonagh Paige Heard. She's the beginning of the rest of my life.

Character trait acquisition. The baby finally gets a look in at sentence 8 of 10. She is introduced as "My daughter" in a separate sentence before we get her name; the link to Amber has to come first. Note the lack of thanks for the surrogate mother – so much for helping women.

Lack of accountability and blame shifting. Lots of celebrities manage to keep their lives private, but Amber has consistently sought fame with endless social media posts, PR releases and puff pieces, and planted stories of her hiking or feeding carrots to her horse.

Pity play, hypocrisy, and lack of empathy. Amber says that she would like a private life while posting a picture which is clearly from a professional photoshoot. The question of whether her daughter should or shouldn't have anonymity didn't seem to factor into Amber's decision.

- Heard's team claims the article was written by a ghostwriter and she may never have read it. "People go against sexual violence and faced our culture's wrath"

You can't help a narcissist because they won't take accountability.

A non-narcissist who loses control of their emotions will be genuinely sorry and want to get help.

A narcissist will say "I can't promise I won't get physical again" and blame you for making them hit you.

amberheard It's hard to imagine that it has been a year. The woman who made me - and made me who I am- left us far too early but is remembered every single day. She lives in my soul and is carried in my heart. She taught me everything i know about kindness and love and gave me my heart. I miss her everyday but I am lucky to have had her love for as long as I did. And for every day that I can't tell her that in person, I look up and thank her beautiful memory which shines on me and my sister Whit and binds our family together with her spirit. Dad, your brother and sisters and friends all miss you.

Amber Heard @realamberheard · Mar 26, 2021

Thank you

"We are pleased - but by no means surprised - by the Court's denial of Mr. Depp's application for appeal. The evidence presented in the UK case was overwhelming and undeniable. To reiterate, the original verdict was that Mr Depp beat Amber on no fewer than 12 occasions and was left in fear of her life. Mr Depp's confused recollections, caused by years of substance abuse, meant he was not a credible witness to his own actions. The verdict stands and British journalists can write - without fear of legal threats - that Mr Depp is, categorically, a wife beater."

You used technology to abuse poor Kate James on a daily basis. You secretly recorded your friends and partners to gain leverage over them. Now you are trying to intimidate Twitter users who criticise you by demanding their personal information. You truly are something else.

wasn't pregnant in order to continue to prescribe it to her; I remember a time when Amber attempted to stop taking it, and then she got a pimple. She freaked out and went straight back on it. During periods where Amber was having rages particularly frequently, I remember reading that Accutane had been associated with a variety of psychiatric effects, including severe mood swings and violent behaviour. Amber took both the Proviron and the Accutane pills excessively during the entire time I worked for her. The quantities of Proviron that she would take were far beyond the prescribed amount, and in the case of the Accutane, for longer than advised as she was so paranoid and determined to have flawless skin.

18. Amber often took other drugs during the time of my employment, such as mushrooms and MDMA. She was open about it, almost to the point of bragging.

19. The assortment of drugs and a great deal of wine would mean that when I woke up in the morning, there would almost always be a barrage of incoherent abuse sent to me from Amber by text between around 2am and 4am. I discovered later that she had gone ahead and deleted all evidence of abusive texts from that iCloud account. I remember on one occasion where Amber screamed at me for sending her messages as an SMS text message, instead of the (iCloud) iMessage format. I only realised a long time afterwards that this was because she knew she would not be able to delete SMS messages remotely and would have been concerned that she did not have the ability to delete those exchanges.

20. On one occasion, it was my birthday and my mother had come to visit me from Australia. As usual, I woke up to a barrage of abuse, so for once I stood up to her and wrote to her that it's my birthday, please not today, could we give it a rest. I remember my hands were shaking as I wrote that, as I was so afraid of her by that time. Amber was outraged and asked how she should know it was my birthday, so I said it's in the calendar - meaning her own iCloud calendar. That apparently gave her more license to abuse me despite the fact it was my birthday. There was no remorse or understanding. By this point she seemed to relish and delight in the daily humiliation and abuse towards me.

Perjury is a crime, so if she committed perjury then by definition she committed a crime.

It meets all the criteria to be perjury. She was a witness in judicial proceedings and knowingly lied about the donations, which were material to proceedings. Which of these do you dispute?

Perjury

Under section 1(1) of the Perjury Act 1911, perjury is committed when:

- a lawfully sworn witness or interpreter
- in judicial proceedings
- wilfully makes a false statement
- which he knows to be false or does not believe to be true, and
- which is material in the proceedings.

Perjury can't be tried as a civil suit because it's a criminal offence. So in the UK, it would be the Crown prosecuting her. Hence reporting it to the attorney general.

This is similar to what's happening in Queensland, where they are deciding whether to criminally charge her.

BREAKING NEWS!

AMBER HEARD CHEATS ILL CHILDREN OUT OF $3.4 MIO!

In the legal drama Johnny Depp vs. Amber Heard her own lawyers now declared, that defendant and alleged serial abuser Amber Heard did not fulfill her pledge to donate her divorce money of $7mio to charity.

When beloved megastar Johnny Depp and his then wife Amber Heard got divorced in 2017, she announced to donate the whole sum of $7mio to children suffering from cancer and AIDS (Cure's) in Los Angeles). The not often announced her plans of donating the money, but confirmed on multiple occasions, that she had donated the total sum to charity. It was headlines all over mainstream media, in talkshows and repeated like a hymn: "Amber Heard donated $7mio to charity."

Even Justice Now, the High Court London based his verdict (trial Depp vs. NHM last year on the basis of the accusation UNDER OATH, that she had donated her divorce money to charity, so assuming, Amber Heard was a credible witness and not a gold digger.

AMBER HEARD DONATED NOTHING. SHE LIED UNDER OATH!
When evidence was published by Johnny Depp's legal team, they dropped a bomb. Communication with CHLA and donor lists revealed recently, that Amber Heard hadn't donated one single dollar of her divorce money. The only one, who donated a $3.4mio installment back in 2017 in Heard's name was:

Johnny Depp

Johnny Depp has been associated with CHLA for many years, as he repeatedly would dress up as his iconic character Capt'n Jack Sparrow and surprise patients and their parents up in difficult times of treatment, recovery and sometimes terminally illness.

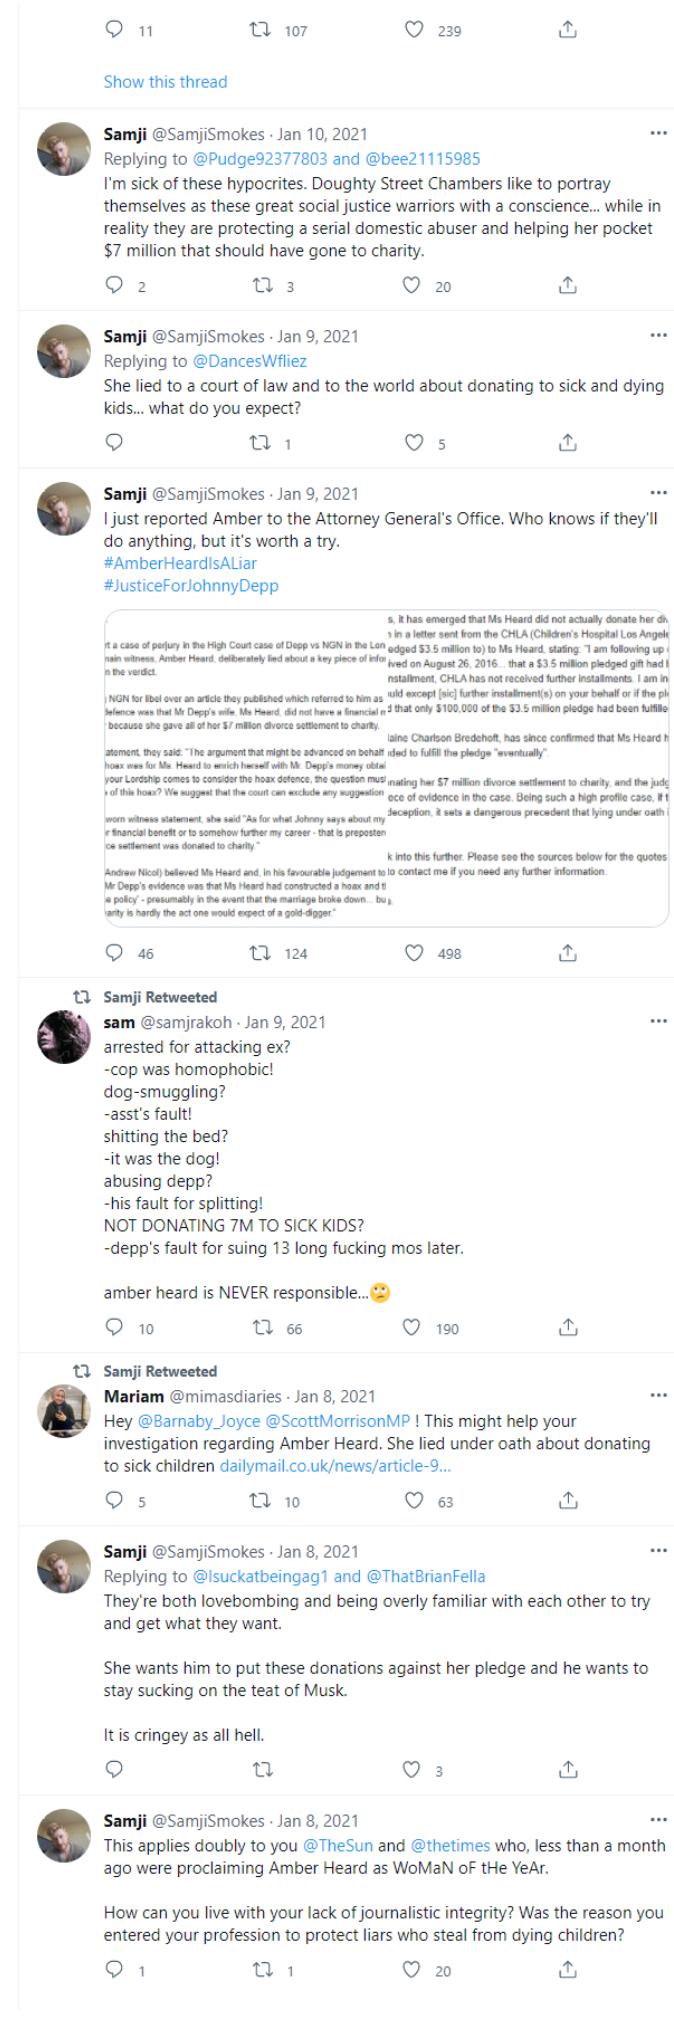

Depp, who has vehemently and always denied Heard's accusations of abuse. When she published an op-ed in 2018, insisting, that Johnny Depp had abused her (without naming him), he sued her for defamation in Virginia. She is still fighting this case.

Depp's legal team stated, that she doesn't want to have bad about the mainsteam media stick to the narrative, that women can be abusers. Therefore protecting Heard and harassing her victim Johnny Depp. For 4 years Amber Heard took credit for a fake donation, leaving sick children without the pledged financial help they need.

Johnny Depp remains determined in his fight for truth and clearing his name from the fabricated allegations.

Heard's attorney, Elaine Charlson Bredehoft, would no pecify how much her client had given to either charity o date, saying only that she intended to fulfill the $7m ledge 'eventually'.

She blamed Depp for the delay, saying Heard has been forced to spend millions defending herself against 'false accusations' made against her in the ongoing defamation case.

Look who is talking again

Greiner, Mr. Pallen said he had "experimented" with the company but "stopped using it long ago." A lawyer for Ms. Greiner said she had asked him to stop after learning of the first purchases.

Still, records show, Mr. Pallen bought Ms. Greiner more Devumi followers in 2016.

Marketing consultants sometimes buy followers for themselves, too, in effect purchasing the evidence of their supposed expertise. In 2015, Jeetendr Sehdev, a former adjunct professor at the University of Southern California who calls himself "the world's leading celebrity branding authority," began buying hundreds of thousands of fake followers from Devumi.

He did not respond to requests for comment. But in his recent best-selling book, "The Kim Kardashian Principle: Why Shameless Sells," he had a different explanation for his rising follower count.

Ed Powers is trying to push some kind of pro Amber Heard agenda, if you look at his past articles. Why, I can't fathom. There are over two hours of audio recordings of her doling out the most cruel abuse imaginable to Johnny Depp: belittling, gaslighting, screaming, admitting to hitting him in the face on multiple occasions and throwing objects at him.

On top of that, she was arrested for attacking her previous girlfriend in front of a police officer, there is a video of her sister covered in bruises after Amber beat her up, and her former assistant has described how Amber used to scream at her for hours on end.

Give up being an abuse apologist Ed.

You mean like Amber Heard is doing to Johnny Depp? Listen to the audio tapes between them and, hand on heart, tell us that you can't see she is the abuser.

There's a reason 750,000 people and counting have signed a petition against her.

It's 2020, people constantly try to chat shit about Men's mental health and try to tell men to speak up against their abusers. Yet one of the most known Men in the world just spoke up against his abuser and essentially lost his career.
Fuck Amber Heard.

Judge Andrew Nicol's ruling on Johnny Depp was absolutely wrong, and the whole world can see the British justice system for the joke that it is.

I hope everyone understands that while this is all going on, Amber Heard is defiantly 110% still continuing to abuse Johnny Depp. The mental abuse of this alone is enough to last a life time and people are still giving her the platform to do that. Johnny deserves justice.

The Johnny Depp trial was a huge injustice. I should have known our feminist justice system would stitch him up when I saw Cherie Blair and Co getting involved.

I apologise for how biased our courts are against men in the UK. Sadly, we see ridiculous decisions like this all the time.
Maybe Johnny Depp's case will finally bring justice for all the men who are being discriminated against by our biased judges.

Mark, I suggest you review the evidence on this case. Amber Heard abused Johnny Depp beyond belief and then tried to frame him. The only reason that Depp needed to take this to the courts is because hacks like you do not do your job and report the truth.

I heard more than enough tyranny in the audio tapes of you and Johnny Depp. The things you put that man through are absolutely disgusting. You act like you are a great humanitarian, yet you have a consistent pattern of abusing people who get close to you.

It's an intimidation tactic to shut people up by threatening to dox them, plain and simple.
