A deposition of WBEL to explore those issues [redacted] apparently. Yet, suddenly, WBEL has refused your [redacted] to produce anyone for deposition, on the apparent grounds that Ms. Heard's claims are bogus and that WBEL should not have to be dealing with testifying about them. While Mr. Depp agrees that Ms. Heard's claims are bogus, one of the basic purposes of discovery is to develop evidence to refute and disprove [redacted] claims. WBEL is not immune from discovery, and is not entitled to simply ignore the subpoena power of the Court.

" I don't think we're ever going to react to, honestly, pure fan pressure. You gotta do what's best for the movie. We felt that if it's James Wan, and Jason Momoa, it should be Amber Heard. That's really what it was. One is not unaware of what is going on in the Twitter-verse, but that doesn't mean you have to react to it or take it as gospel or accede to their wishes. You have to do what's right for the film, and that's really where we landed on it.

5 employees are still largely working remotely because of the

Yes, and anyone can make a claim, whether or not it's accurate or even true!

- The federal government's Vaccine Adverse Event Reporting System helps researchers collect data on vaccine after-effects and to detect patterns that may warrant a closer look.
- VAERS is designed as an open system, where anyone can submit a report, and the reports are widely accessible. The reports are not verified, and incomplete VAERS data is often used in conjunction with false claims about vaccine safety.
- The CDC cautions that VAERS results are not enough to determine whether a vaccine causes a particular adverse event.
- For the COVID-19 vaccines, VAERS has received a flood of reports, and it has become especially potent fuel for misinformation.

Oh Chris, this is all so disheartening and clearly manufactured by entities on the "right!" You are fantastic and will be TRULY missed on CNN and Sirius!! Those doing evil against you and your family will not prevail! You will come out on top! Blessings to you and your family!!!

I watched CNN because of you and Don. I will miss the sincere ❤️ and wishing well to everyone. You're all about family and friends; we're lucky to be part of that. I can't watch CNN anymore. When you come back, bring Don with you and SOON!!!

Yes, especially the hand off and their obvious affection for one another. Cuomo once told his audience that they are brothers. I could feel that energy.

@ChrisCuomo As a loyal fan of your CNN show I have to admit that I'm extremely sad 😢 I will miss you terribly and hope you'll have a show again one day somewhere. I will miss the handoff between you and Lemon - that always brought me great joy. Be well

We WANT YOU BACK ASAP. YOU WERE THE ONLY REASON I WATCHED CNN. I love your radio show too. You survived COVID and will move onward and upward. It's going to be okay. LIFE has major plans for such a professionally talented man as yourself. I'm waiting for what's next Brother.

Nick, do you ever think about how many people you may have killed with your lies about Covid and the vaccine? They all had families to. You might want to sit this one out.

You're a schmuck. Explain, in detail, what he did to women that should deter women from supporting him. Oh yeah, no evidence has been provided, just the threat of evidence. CNN did not have the political balls to see it through. It's too bad.

I defend Cuomo bros 100%!! If the sexual assault allegations are true, then why did it take so long for these women to come forward?? Had it been serious enough when it happened, it should've been taken care of then!! Me too is BS. $$ and 15 min!! #setup

My comment is referring to the people saying that women were just liking Chris' comment because they had a crush on him. Anyway In my opinion Chris was just helping his brother not defending a guilty man, innocent until found guilty.

Or it could be a bunch of smart women who really care about real reporting and smart opinions from an intelligent man. Not everything is just always sexual attraction. Your comment is the one of an insecure person. Pathetic!
