Hi Twitter.

February was rough for us. Our office flooded in Brisbane, Australia.

Everybody is okay but we all took a break to help out locals. Our media coverage will resume as normal shortly.

Some Hollywood stars disgust me with their preoccupation with politics.

Instead of the escapism we ask and pay for, we have some of the most entitled, elitist crackpots EVER miming the day-to-day struggles of the everyperson as they help divide society more and more daily.

To be fair this is nothing new. Sound-a-likes are commonly used in video game adaptations to cut costs. Disney used Jared Butler as Sparrow in games since 2007.

We believe this is a win. To bring back Depp's Sparrow after reportedly moving on shows they're still interested.

That is what exploitation looks like. Imitating him and throwing him to the curb because they have found something similar or very like him. I doubt Johnny approves or feels good about this. I don't either. There is no need for stuntmen or alikes. Johnny is still available.

We know that Rare worked closely with Depp's former stunt double while writing the script and asked... "Is this something Johnny would say or do?"

True. twitter.com/MTopolini/stat...

legal records show that she has continued to use Amber van Ree, even Amber Vanree, in official records after 2011.
We've even obtained documents showing that Amber Heard also goes by the name Larisa Vanda since 2018. What's that all about?

The first ever record for Larisa Vanda was made on September 30th, 2018. At first we believed this could simply be the name of her landlord or even just one of her flatmates, but this name is also linked to three of addresses including her home town Austin, Texas.

Depp's estate manager discovered, what he believes to be, human poo on Johnny's side of their marital bed. When Heard was asked about this, she blamed her two Yorkshire terriers.

The estate manager didn't believe her and described the faecal matter to be too big to come from a 2kg dog. He also said that it was black in colour and smelled terrible.

Depp fans think that Heard's red wine addiction might be why the poop was black. Could they be right?

Their asking for the records because of people like you, proof that she donated anywhere between 1-5 MILLION two years in a row 2017 and 2018. I have looked into it and it seems she has donated the money which is completely irrelevant to if she was abused or not
