Here is Scarlet's take on nudity.
- New York for her new film "Under the Skin," where she plays a seductive alien luring men back to her home to harvest them. One of her tricks in the movie is her sexuality and showing all of her "skin."
- About filming those nude scenes, she told reporters, "You look at the nudity and you assume it's going to be a screen shot for someone."
- Read: Scarlett Johansson Is Engaged, Rep Confirms—See the Ring!
- She continued, "You kind of have to weigh the value of the risk you are taking, is this gratuitous? Is this a vanity project, or is this an important part of this character's journey to self discovery ... I'm not a provocative person. It's not like I live to be photographed in the buff or

- the role calls for Heard has no such inhibitions -- in the upcoming ensemble piece "The Informers," an adaptation of the Bret Easton Ellis novel, Heard spends all but one scene undressed. "Diary," however, also will offer the opportunity to showcase some dramatic chops.
- The role of Sanderson, the third point in the "Rum Diary" triangle, has not been cast.
- "Diary" is a passion project for Depp, who was a friend of Thompson's and has been trying to get the adaptation off the ground since 2003.
- Heard, who just booked the lead in John Carpenter's haunted house thriller "Ward 19," also nabbed a cameo in "Zombieland," starring Jesse Eisenberg and Woody Harrelson. She will play the object of Eisenberg's affection who turns into a zombie.

It's definitely no mystery why you are so confused. It's pure ignorance. You just have to read a few of the DeppAnon posts to see that you all lack logic and common sense. You really think people ONLY get bruises from fighting?? That's just dumb.

Amber Heard

From Ryan Leone to Jonathan Shaw via...
Lisen brother... I usually don't chime in on gossip but I know Johnny is a dear friend of yours and I've known Amber for years so I figured I'd share my thoughts there based on my own experience with her.
I remember sitting at a picnic table in Santa Monica with you a few months ago, having an absolutely wonderful conversation about Johnny and Amber's tumultuous but solid things about.
I met Amber at the Santa Barbara Film Festival. She was staying at the same hotel as my friend Easton Ellis' adoption of The Informer. Amber had a shitty role in the movie and I ended up selling her some blow and giving her my mouthwash.
Our interactions back then were primarily drug-related but I can tell you this... She was a dope blend of the worst variety, shooting coke & hash, being a total b*tch, and having the propensity towards delusional and paranoid fits that could last for days until she finally crashed.
She got the police called on my house several times, including once for being obviously wasted and driving my ATV around a residential neighbourhood at 3 in the morning. She is a malignant, manipulative, and extremely loud and combative person. I last contact after I left California for a few years but when I heard that she had married Johnny Depp I can only imagine that these underlying delusions of grandiosity were amplified to an almost tyrannical level. I am not surprised at all.
Domestic Violence is a real thing and it's an ugly thing. I've done some bad stuff in my time but I've never put hands on a woman, child, or animal. I'm also aware that fame goes from being harmless excesses is real thing as well. I know Amber and the is a f*ck. The truth is being exposed rapidly but most of all - calling her someone that has wasted a lot of my life with this person! - I full heartedly support Mr. Depp.

Thank you for stating this!! The idea of training/choreographing fight scenes it to MAKE it LOOK real...not to actually hurt someone!! It's sad she takes pride/joy in others pain.

I think it's safe to say Amber and I became friends.

Most of this is likely due to the fact that she beat the crap out of me. She pulled her punches with Christa, but she did not cut the boys any slack. I snapped a picture at the end of the day. I should have taken a picture the next morning when the bruise had blossomed the size of grapefruit. Take a look at the scene where the cult drags Piper out of the church. Just ask Kendrick Hudson, Papajohn and Henry Kingi what it was like three against one. They'll tell you they could have used a few more guys. I remember Billy Burke joking that he thought shooting a fight scene with the lovely Amber Heard would be more fun and less painful. She beat the crap out of all of us.

Always blaming someone else...

70. But I do feel it's important to understand the context in which I was dealing with these doctors and nurses, and the circumstances around these notes. When I became involved with Johnny everything of mine suddenly became not good enough. My clothes weren't right. My doctor wasn't right, I would be offered alternatives supplied by Johnny (and it wasn't just doctors: Johnny's stylist, Samantha McMillan started styling me very early on in our relationship). I was given access to Dr Kipper because my doctor was, according to Johnny and his team, not good enough. Soon afterwards Dr Kipper referred me to his friend, a psychologist called Dr Connell Cowan (who worked with Dr. Kipper). I was also informed that I would benefit from a private nurse, so I was given a nurse as well, Erin Bœurum (who also worked with Dr. Kipper). I learned later that all these people gave Johnny regular reports about me.

71. After I started seeing Dr Cowan, he asked me if I could share some of what I was telling him with Dr Kipper. I can't remember if I signed something to say yes or not, or if I just said okay verbally. But after that, Dr Cowan would talk to Dr Kipper. I have now been shown some of their communications, which have been disclosed in this claim. Everything I said was relayed to Johnny. Johnny was paying.

72. For example, I have now seen for the first time a text message that Johnny sent my nurse, Erin, in which he was asking her to sign a declaration, where he says: "I was the CLIENT, ultimately, if you and Debbie are able to, at least, speak of me, who I really am and what!! I was the one who asked for you to CALM HER DOWN AND KEEP HER UNDER CONTROL!! Not because she was kicking DRUGS!! It was to take her pressure away from me!! Same reason I hired her shrink... who, by the way, only made her worse!!" (AH5/25). Erin was never hired to help me "kick [] DRUGS" or with any substance abuse issue. I have never been treated for any drug problem. The text was

So where in her mental disorders does the blame shifting & denial play in to?

74. I have been shown a document from a nurse called Monroe Tinker. He was the nurse in Dr Kipper's office when I went there for a concussion check after the December 2015 incident. I can see from his note that he records my concussion as having been sustained by bumping my head while standing up. Monroe was not my regular nurse. By then I knew and trusted my own nurse Erin, and as her notes show (TB File 4 Tab 108 page F640.8), I had seen her before this, shortly after the incident, and told her what really happened. After we spoke, she followed up the next day with a text message saying "I love you.... I don't even know all the details, but it sounds very scary." (AH5/26-27). But I did not know Monroe at all, so I did not tell him the truth about how I was injured. I was trying to protect Johnny. I exhibit at (AH5/28) a copy of a text message I sent to Lisa Beane on 30 May 2016 in which I asked for the medical evaluation that was carried out back in December 2015, and in which I explain that at that time I felt unable to tell Monroe how the injuries had been caused.

75. As well as the specific incident, Erin was well aware of Johnny's violence, in a message to me dated 13 September 2015 when we were talking about him being passed out drunkenly in the bathroom, she warned me to keep him on his side to reduce the risk of choking but said "if that's going to wake him and make him angry and make him swing at you in his drunken fog, then I don't want you putting yourself in harm's way" (AH5/29).

76. Meanwhile, I also told Dr Cowan, whom – at least at that time – I trusted too, what really happened. I texted him on the evening of the incident saying that Johnny "did a number on me tonight. I'm safe and with my support tonight but I need some real help. Can I come tomorrow. I called earlier because I thought I had a concussion and didn't know if I should have called police. A copy of that text message is at (AH5/30)

If there was ANY evidence of DV, then LAPD was/is required to follow the protocol/procedure and it would have been an mandatory arrest, and they would have arrested Mr. Depp and charged accordingly. That did not happen, and was not the case.
